

TimeOut New York

July, 26, 2016

Joe Leffert directs Hip to Hip Theatre Company's account of Shakespeare's historical tragedy, in which Roman senators bloodily veto a popular general after his leadership turns toward tyranny. The production roves through numerous city parks, in rep with the company's lighter-hearted As You Like It.

Hip to Hip Theatre Company goes into the woods in Shakespeare's oft-produced comedy about love-struck nobles romping around the Forest of Arden. David Mold directs a production that travels through multiple New York City parks, in rep with the same troupe's Julius Caesar.
